(a) whether there is a U.N. embargo on the sale of arms to South Africa;

(b) whether the West German firms HDW-IKL have sold designs of submarines to South Africa and are at present engaged in building submarines for South Africa in Durban, South Africa;

(c) whether Government have lodged any protest in any international forum against this breach of U. N. embargo by West Germany;

(d) if so, when and with what result; and

(e) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The alleged sale of designs of submarines to South Africa and assistance in their construction in that country by the West German firms HDW-IKL is under investigation by a Parliamentary Committee of the Federal Republic of Germany. Since the Committee has not concluded its deliberations it would be premature to draw any conclusion.

(c) No, Sir;

(d) Does not arise;

(e) The Govt. would await the outcome of the Parliamentary investigation in the FRG before deciding upon the appropriate course of action.
